

Innovations and Best Practice in Tissue Viability 1 Day Conference 16th May 2018

Does your work involve care and management of patients with skin conditions and wounds?
Are you interested in learning more about exciting new developments and services in tissue viability?

This conference has been designed for registered and unregistered nurses working in primary and secondary care settings. Students are also welcomed.

Time	Activity
9.00-10.00	Coffee and Registration Stand Viewing
10.00-10.10	Introduction to the day and speakers— Cherie Weightman
10.10-11.00	“Role of the tissue viability nurse in managing complex wounds for clients who have learning disability needs.”-Anita Kilroy-Findley
11.00-11.15	Coffee
11.15-12.00	Specialist podiatrist for patients who have diabetic foot issues - Jaime O’Malley
12.00-12.45	Lead Specialist Dermatology Nurse BCUHB. Advances in biologic therapies for patients who have Psoriasis -Allyson Brown
12.45-13.45	Lunch and Stand Viewing
13.45-14.30	Burns Specialist nurse service for North Wales - Donnas Wilkinson
14.30 – 15.15	Lead Lymphedema specialist nurse - Joanne Jones
15.15 – 15.30	Coffee
15.30 – 16.15	Foot surgery/ulcer treatment for both Diabetic and Non-Diabetic patients - Professor Dean Williams
16:15 – 16:30	Evaluation, presentation of certificates and close

This one-day conference offers a diverse range of expert and enthusiastic speakers who lead in their specialist fields. Subjects will include:

- ◆ The tissue viability specialist nurse role in managing patients who have learning disabilities.
- ◆ The specialist podiatrist role in managing patients who have diabetic foot issues.
- ◆ Advances in biologic therapy for patients who have Psoriasis.

The day will also showcase a variety of wound care products relevant to the agenda.

Venue: Reichel Hall, Bangor University, LL57 2TW

Get in touch

If you would like to know more about this conference please contact:

Cherie Weightman

Email: c.weightman@bangor.ac.uk

Phone: 01248 383147

School of Healthcare Sciences, Fron Heulog, Bangor University Gwynedd LL57 2EF

To book: <https://shop.bangor.ac.uk/product-catalogue/coleg-gwyddorau-iechyd-ac-ymddygiad-college-of-health-and-behavioural-sciences/innovations-and-best-practice-in-tissue-viability-1-day-conference>